CHARGED WITH FELONY.
Joseph Davis, a negro porter for a Hull street store, was arrested yesterday charged with a felony. He was locked up in the station house. The warrant for his arrest was issued at the request of Ida Hardy. She said Joe promised to take her as his wedded wife. Later in the day the man concluded he would become a benedict and get out of the cluthes of the law. Capitain Lipseomb went for the woman, but she could not be found. The ceremony will be performed in the Mayor's Court Monday.

MAIL SCHEDULE CAHNGED.

The illustrated ser-mons on "Incidents in the life of Daniel" will be resumed and the subject for to-night will be "Beislazza's Feast." This thrillingly interesting Bible story will be illustrated with three large paintfigs. The sermons already given in this series have attracted large audiences.

THE SCHOOLFIELD MEETINGS.

The congregation at the tent Friday night was estimated at a thousand people or more. All the Methodist preachers of Manchester and most of from Richmond were present. The singing was done by about a hundred of the best Voices of Manchester, led by Mr. Van Pelt and accompanied by a piano and cor-net and was highly enjoyable.

LEGUAL NOTICES .

The object of this suit is to obtain from the court a construction of the last will and testament of W. S. Rolin, deceased, the direction of the court to the executor and executiving in the performance of their duties thereunder; an ascertainment of all the debts, if any, due by the decedent's estate, a sale of so much of the property as may be necessary to pay the debts of said estate, and the legacies in said will. And affidavit having been made and filed that W. S. Rolin, Jemima Geihardt, J. W. Gelhardt and Fred W. Rolin are non-residents of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that said defendants, W. S. Rolin, Jemima Gelhardt, J. W. Gelhardt and Fred W. Rolin, appear here within fifteen days after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interests in this suit.
